Counsel for respondent Nos.1 and 2: None

Counsel for respondent Nos.3 to 5 : Advocate General

Per G.S. Singhvi, CJ

This appeal is directed against order dated 20-06-2006 passed by the learned Single Judge, whereby he allowed the writ petition filed by respondent Nos. 1 and 2 along with a batch of other petitions with the title case N.Sekhar v. Government of Andhra Pradesh and others – Writ Petition No. 10965 of 2006.

In the writ petition filed by them, which was registered as Writ Petition No. 10642 of 2006, respondent Nos.1 and 2 prayed for issue of a declaration that the action of the official respondents in deleting their names from voters list – 2006 in State A.P., Assembly 82, Nuzvid Constituency, Machilipatnam Parliament 12 (General) Part No. 78, Village Pothureddipalli, Nuzvid Mandal, Krishna District and also deleting in Pothureddipalli Gram Panchayat Voters List – 2006 page No. 1, Nuzvid Revenue Division, Krishna District is arbitrary and illegal.

The learned Single Judge briefly referred to the factual matrix of the writ petitions, but did not deal with the individual grievance and disposed of the entire batch of writ petitions by a common order dated 20-6-2006, the operative part of which reads as under:

> "150. In view of the fact that by virtue of supersession made in G.O.Ms.No.254 constitutional, legislative and subordinate legislation vacuum had been created the validity or otherwise of the said Rules need not be gone into and hence the said question is left open. However, a Writ of Mandamus as prayed for is issued quashing the consequential notification issued on 10-6-2006 which is long subsequent to filing of the Writ Petitions and just one day after the passing of the order by the Division Bench, as > illegal, arbitrary, discriminatory and being violative of > Article 14 of the Constitution of India and also violative of Article 243-K of the Constitution of India and Sections 11, > 12, 201 of the A.P. Panchayat Raj Act 1994 and consequently this Court also declares that all the electoral lists drawn in this regard are not in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, the statutory provisions, or the subordinate Legislations inasmuch as they suffer from the Constitutional bankruptcy, Legislative bankruptcy and subordinate legislative bankruptcy as well and further direct the respondents to prepare fresh electoral lists in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and also the provisions of the A.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1994, if need be, by filling the requisite subordinate legislation as well."

Learned counsel for the appellant invited our attention to the judgment dated 18-12-2006 rendered by the Division Bench in Writ Appeal No. 709 of 2006 – Government of Andhra Pradesh v. N.Sekhar and others and batch, whereby order dated 20-6-2006 passed by the learned Single Judge in Writ Petition No. 10965 of 2006 and batch was reversed, and submitted that this appeal may be allowed in similar terms.

We have carefully perused the record and are satisfied that this appeal deserves to be allowed in terms of judgment of Writ Appeal No. 709 of 2006 and batch. Ordered accordingly. The detailed reasons recorded in judgment dated 18-12-2006 rendered by the Division Bench in Writ Appeal No. 709 of 2006 shall be read as part of this order. However, liberty is given to respondent Nos. 1 and 2 to file election petition to question the elections held on the basis of electoral rolls notified on 08-05-2006. It shall also be open to respondent Nos. 1 and 2 to apply for condonation of delay in filing election petition. If they file such application, then the same shall be decided by the Election Tribunal in accordance with law keeping in view the litigation instituted in this Court.
